

Marty Dubroc Memorial Golf Tournament
and
Ladies Afternoon Tea

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Does my husband have to be participating in the golf tournament in order for me to attend the ladies tea?

A: No. Anyone can attend the ladies tea by purchasing a ticket.

Q: What is the cost of a ladies tea ticket?

A: $25

Q: Does participation in the golf tournament include a ticket to the ladies tea?

A: No. A ticket will need to be purchased separately for the ladies tea.

Q: What is the format of the ladies tea?

A: An assortment of delicious desserts and tea will be served. Young ladies from Still Creek will be in attendance to enjoy the tea event with guests. During tea, Still Creek will share about our mission, stories of God's faithfulness, and the impact Marty DuBroc and you are making in our children's lives.

Q: Will spouses of the golfers be able to participate in the dinner and awards ceremony?

A: That will be determined based on space availability approximately one week prior to the event. Please email Marilyn Martinez to be added to a waitlist:
m.martinez@stillcreekranch.org

Q: What meals are provided for the golfers?

A: Grab-n-go lunch, snacks, beverages, and a buffet dinner in the banquet room following the golf tournament.

Q: What is the purpose of the golf and tea events?

A: To honor Marty Dubroc, a former board member and faithful supporter of Still Creek, and to raise awareness and support for the children we care for.

Q: Why is this event being held in Fulshear at the Weston Lakes Country Club?

A: Marty DuBroc lived in Fulshear and was a member of the Weston Lakes Country Club. His family and friends wish to hold this event to honor him and to help bring awareness to Still Creek.